

Joy on Andrew

Come rain or shine (mostly rain recently), Andrew can be relied on. He brings me groceries and news of the wider world. He is not just a delivery man, he is a friend.

Andrew on Joy

This may sound corny but Joy is an absolute joy to visit with her shopping each week. Her mind is as focused as ever and we often review current news or relive her many anecdotes. As a former school teacher, she retains the gift of holding her listeners' attention with a mix of stories and a sprinkling of humour. I much enjoy our meetings.
